

MOVE ANNOUNCES CEO RESIGNATION

Transport and logistics group, MOVE Logistics Group Limited (NZX/ASX: MOV), advises that CEO Craig Evans, has tendered his resignation, effective from 24 October 2024.

Craig took up the CEO role in February 2023, at a time when MOVE was embarking on a growth and expansion phase. However, the economic headwinds over the last 18 months have hampered progress on growth initiatives and driven a material change in strategic focus to match market conditions.

Chair of MOVE, Julia Raue, said: “Craig has done an excellent job over the last 18 months, transitioning our company towards a sales led, customer focused organisation. Engagement with our people and our customers is strong, and our multi-modal offer has been further enhanced under his leadership.”

Craig Evans commented: “It has been a privilege to work in and lead MOVE. We have a team of amazing people, and supporting their passion, capability and determination to deliver customer value has been a highlight for me.”

The Board will be initiating a search process to attract and recruit a new CEO.
